MAY 7-13 IS OBSERVED NATIONALLY AS PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK.

Public Service Recognition week honors those who serve as federal, state, county and local government employees. In Eagle Mountain City that includes our city employees, law enforcement, firefighters/EMS, teachers, military personnel, and more. If we think about what our community would be like without these employees we can see the profound impact they have.

From a public safety perspective, our law enforcement, military personnel, and firefighters/EMS willingly put their physical and mental health at risk to protect and care for us. Those of us who have had a reason to call 911 may recall the stress of that occasion or occasions, but these public employees carry that stress every day they go to work, often multiple times a day.

Many times I have been debriefed on particularly traumatic or volatile emergencies, some of which have not ended ideally. Often our firefighters, EMS, and law enforcement officers carry around memories and images that most of us will never fully grasp the reality of. Sometimes our simple “thank you” hardly seems fair compensation. Nevertheless, they have our gratitude.

Dedicated teachers spend countless hours beyond their school schedule to provide a good education for our children, including support for special needs. School administrators are involved in the community and maintain good relationships with the City. In Eagle Mountain, I have come to know so many of our amazing school administrators and teachers who are investing in our children. Here again, how do we thank those investing in our children when thank you just doesn’t seem enough?

I see first-hand the efforts of our city employees, who consistently and proactively work hard to further the progress of Eagle Mountain. When I look at what we have accomplished over the last four years I can hardly believe my own eyes. To the city employees, I hope you understand how much I have been personally inspired and blessed by your desire to serve the people of Eagle Mountain. I know that I have asked a lot of you over the years. Not only have you met my expectations, but you have shown yourselves to be dedicated, talented, and selfless. Again, my gratitude feels trivial compared to the efforts you have given.

Sometimes, especially with the ease and abundance of online forums, our focus can become centered on what we disagree with, many times without truly understanding or allowing for the complexity of a given situation or event. My hope for our public employees is that they will continue to strive for excellence in all that they do, and that their spirit of service will be acknowledged and appreciated by the public they serve.

2017 Election

In the 2017 election, Eagle Mountain voters will elect a Mayor and two Councilmembers. Terms will run from 2018 through 2022. The filing period for declarations of candidacy runs from June 1 through June 7, ending at 5:00 p.m. on June 7.

An IMPORTANT CHANGE for this election is Eagle Mountain City will be joining 17 other municipalities in Utah County to Vote by Mail. All active, registered voters will receive a ballot mailed by the Utah County Elections Office three weeks before the election.

Are you registered? Register, or update your registration, at vote.utah.gov. Registration is required online or in-person at the Utah County Clerk’s Office by August 8 to vote in the Primary election, if needed, or by October 31 to vote in the General election. Mail-in registrations must be received by July 17 to vote in the Primary election and by October 10 for the General election. If you have changed addresses, even within Eagle Mountain City, your registration will need to be updated.

How do I Vote by Mail? Follow the instructions on the ballot to select the candidate you are voting for. Once you have marked your ballot, follow the instructions for returning your ballot. Envelopes must be postmarked no later than the day before the election to be counted. Voter information pamphlets will be mailed separately from the ballot. If desired, ballots can be dropped off in-person to the Utah County Clerk’s Office or the City Recorder’s Office at City Hall prior to Election Day. Votes may also be cast in person by provisional ballot at City Hall on Election Day. Please be aware it will take longer if you choose to vote provisionally on Election Day.

Questions? We expect some of you may have additional questions. Please visit www.eaglemountaincity.com or contact the City Recorder’s Office at 801-789-6610 or fkofoed@emcity.org.

Utah County Sheriff’s Office
Eagle Mountain Division

The Eagle Mountain Sheriff’s Office - Eagle Mountain Division is located in the City Hall building at 1650 E. Stagecoach Run.

Requests for police assistance or domesticated animal control issues should be reported to Utah Valley Dispatch at 801-794-3970. Life-threatening emergencies or crimes in progress should be reported by calling 911.

Wild animals such as raccoons, squirrels, skunks, snakes and mountain lions fall under the Utah Division of Wildlife. Please contact them at 801-491-5678 for assistance.

To make an appointment for fingerprints or to get information about the Community Safety Program, RAD Kids, RAD Women, or D.A.R.E. programs, you may call the Eagle Mountain office Monday-Thursday at 801-789-6701.

Safely dispose of old or unused medications by bringing them to the drop box in the sheriff’s office at City Hall. It is accessible during business hours. The drop is anonymous.

If you have lost an item and wish to check to see if it has been turned in or if you have found an item and wish to turn it in, please contact the Eagle Mountain office at 801-789-6701.

To obtain a copy of a police report, call the Eagle Mountain office during business hours to make sure a deputy is available. It is $5 (exact cash or check only) per report and will usually take about 10 business days to receive it.

Please be aware that sheriff’s office personnel may be called away from the office at any time. If you are at the building and find the office closed, please call dispatch to check on the availability of a deputy.

Q&A with Chief Deputy McDowell

Eric McDowell is a 20 year veteran of the Utah County Sheriff’s Office. He has been assigned to the Eagle Mountain Division since 2007 and was promoted to Chief Deputy last year.

Q: Can you give us a little info on your background and how you got started in law enforcement?

A: I am originally from California and moved to Utah after receiving a baseball scholarship to Brigham Young University. I graduated from BYU, with a Bachelors of Science Degree(Sociology-Deviance emphasis) in 1996. While attending BYU, I met my wife and have been married for nearly 22 years. We have three children.

I have worked in the Corrections, Administration, Judicial, and Patrol Divisions. I have been assigned to the “Contract Cities” for nearly 11.5 years, with the past 10 years serving in Eagle Mountain City.

As a teenager and even through college, I always had an interest in law enforcement. It seemed like every vocational/personality test I had taken, always directed me towards law enforcement. Approximately a year after graduating from college, the Utah County Sheriff’s Office was opening a new correctional facility in Spanish Fork and were hiring a large number of correctional deputies. I was hired in March of 1997 and the rest is history.

Q: What appealed to you about working in Eagle Mountain?

A: Prior to being assigned to Eagle Mountain, I was assigned to Saratoga Springs City, where I worked for a year and a half, up until they started their own police department. In July of 2007, Eagle Mountain City expanded their contractual needs for law enforcement services, which lead to me being assigned here.

One reason I have stayed in Eagle Mountain, is that I enjoy the aspects of Community Oriented Policing. Which, I know sounds cliché, but I love the sense of community and taking ownership of a particular area. The main reason I have stayed or what appeals to me the most, is the great amount of support we receive from the City’s administration and from the residents of Eagle Mountain. It makes a hard job easier, when you know the vast majority of the residents (whom we serve) support what we do.

Q: What are some of the most significant changes within the sheriff’s office in EM from the time you started working here to today? Any unique challenges?

A: There haven’t been a lot of significant changes, other than to the staffing plan. Obviously with growth (population/calls for service), the need for more personnel has been a natural progression. The most unique challenge, is trying to forge relationships with new residents, who may have had negative interactions with their previous law enforcement authority.

Q: With such a large youth population, what are some things parents and other residents can do to help keep kids safe?

A: One thing I think we as parents can do to keep our kids safe, is to be more involved. Talk with your child about known dangers (sexting, addiction, stranger danger, suicidal thoughts, etc.), establish set expectations/rules at a young age, and teach them right from wrong.

In general, residents can look out for each other more. Recognize and report suspicious/criminal behavior as it arises throughout the various neighborhoods, in which they reside. Essentially be active and involved in your community. Fortunately, I feel Eagle Mountain residents do really well in this category.

Q: As the city continues to grow rapidly and the teen and young adult population increases are you seeing more crimes committed by this demographic? If so, what can the community do to help?

A: Our crime statistics involving juveniles has remained status quo, the past number of years. We usually see an increase of said calls, when school is out for the summer. As a community, we can continue being vigilant in reporting behavior to Utah Valley Dispatch and making sure residences/vehicles are always secured. This will help in discouraging crimes of opportunity, such as, thefts and burglaries.

Q: What do you consider to be the greatest accomplishment to date in your career?

A: I feel my greatest accomplishment has been, forging a long lasting relationship with Eagle Mountain City. Even though the Utah County Sheriff’s Office is a separate entity from Eagle Mountain City, those of us assigned out here, believe we are your police department. This level of ownership and philosophy is what I have taken pride in.

Q: What is the most difficult thing you’ve ever had to do related to your job?

A: There have been many incidents over the years, which have been difficult to deal with, but obviously the loss of Sergeant Cory Wride on January 30, 2014, will stay with me forever. This lone event has greatly impacted many of us throughout the Utah County Sheriff’s Office. What has helped with the healing process, has been the amount of love and support we have received from the residents of Eagle Mountain City.

Q: Anything else you would like EM residents to know?

A: I have enjoyed my time serving the residents of Eagle Mountain City, during my tenure and look forward to many more years.
